

October is National Reading Group Month

The Women's National Book Association has designated October as National Reading Group Month to mark the 90th anniversary of the organization's founding. WNBA hopes to bring about public awareness of the joy of shared reading and encourage libraries, bookstores, and other organizations to host special events for reading groups....