

I recently became aware of your association and the Launch of National Reading Group Month. The New Canaan Library has developed a very active program of service to Book Groups. We often host special events for Reading Groups and have hosted over 150 authors over the past two years. Next week, on Wednesday, October 24th at 12:00 noon, author Ursula Hegi will be sharing her book, The Worst Thing I've Done with our readers at a luncheon program that is open to the public. We have announced this program to Celebrate National Reading Group Month.
